§ 1 Scope of validity, exclusivity

The acceptance and publication of all advertising orders and follow-up orders are governed exclusively by these General Terms and Conditions, as well as by the Publisher’s price lists in effect at the time of conclusion of contract, which form a material component of such contract. The validity of any general terms and conditions of the customer is precluded to the extent they are inconsistent with these General Terms and Conditions.

§ 2 Offer, conclusion of contract

1. An “advertising order” in terms of these General Terms and Conditions constitutes the contract concluded on the placement of advertising material or materials in information and communication services, especially the Internet, for distribution. Orders for advertisements may be submitted personally, by phone, letter, fax, or email, or online. The Publisher is not liable for transmission errors.

2. A contract comes into existence only after written confirmation of the order by the Publisher. The price list in effect at the time of conclusion of contract is applicable in each case. The customer can obtain information about the price list directly from the Publisher or at www.verlag-henrich.de.

3. Advertising for goods or services from more than one advertising customer or other advertisers within a particular advertisement (e.g. banners, pop-up ads…) requires an additional agreement in written form or per email.

4. The Publisher may in its discretion reject advertisement orders, including individual placements in connection with a package contract. This applies, in particular, to advertisements whose content violates laws, standards of public decency, or governmental regulations, to those that have been objected to in complaint proceedings before the German Advertising Standards Council (Deutscher Werberat) or to those whose publication cannot be reasonably expected of the Publisher due to their content, origin, or technical form. The Publisher must give notice of rejection promptly after becoming aware of the relevant content.

5. In particular, the Publisher has the right to withdraw an advertising medium already published if the customer himself or itself or his representatives have not only generated advertising material which is not suitable for publication but which would cause the Publisher to violate the law, morals, or any moral or ethical principles or standards laid down by the German Advertising Standards Council or by any other independent body or by the German Trade Association (Deutscher Werberat) or the competition authorities or if the Customer or its representatives have not properly complied with the Publisher’s general directions.

§ 3 Advertising material

Online advertising material in terms of the General Terms and Conditions can for example consist of the following elements:

- Photos and/or texts, of tone sequences and/or moving pictures (e. g. advertising banners).
- A sensitive area which, when clicked, initiates a connection to further data at an online address that are in the responsibility of the customer (e. g. a link).

§ 4 Prices, payment terms, price reduction

1. The compensation applicable between the Publisher and the customer results from the order confirmation. If a written order confirmation was not given, or if compensation is not evident in the order confirmation, the price list in effect at the time the order was issued is applicable.

2. The price for publication of an advertisement is determined according to the price list currently in effect. The Publisher promptly requests replacement for perceptibly unsuitable or damaged artwork. The Publisher guarantees the usual quality within the scope of possibilities afforded by the advertising material. If the Publisher stores the advertising material without being obliged to do so, the storage shall end after a period of maximum 3 months.

3. Prices may be changed at any time. For orders already confirmed by the Publisher, however, price changes are effective only if they were announced at least one month in advance. In such case, the customer is entitled to terminate, which right must be exercised in writing not later than 14 days after announcement of the price increase. In such case, discounts need not be refunded pursuant to No. 4. Farther-reaching claims of the customer are precluded. If termination does not occur, the price increase is deemed approved for existing orders as well.

4. The discounts described in the price list are granted only to the customer and only for advertisements appearing within a given year (“Advertising Year”). Discounts for repeat orders are valid only during an Advertising Year. Unless agreed otherwise, the period begins to run with the appearance of the first advertisement. The discounts described in the price list are granted only for advertisements appearing during a given year. Unless agreed otherwise in writing at the time of conclusion of contract, the period begins to run with the appearance of the first advertisement. If the one-year period is not complied with, the customer is obligated to refund to the Publisher the amount of the difference between the discount granted under the contract with respect to the stipulated total volume and the discount corresponding to the actual number of advertisements placed.

5. The invoiced amount is payable net (without deduction) within 30 days of the invoice date. If payment is made within eight days, the Publisher grants the customer a discount of 2%.

6. Payments must be made net of all costs and fees to the Publisher’s bank accounts indicated in the invoice. In the event of late payment, interest is charged in accordance with Section 288 of the German Civil Code (Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch, BGB). Collection costs incurred as a result of late payment are for the account of the customer. In the event of late payment, the Publisher may suspend further processing of a current order until payment is made and demand payment in advance. Should there be justified concerns about the customer’s ability to pay, the Publisher is entitled to make the appearance of further advertisements dependent on payment in advance of the advertisement fee and on the settlement of open invoices, including during the term of a contract and regardless of the originally agreed payment terms. Erroneous advertisement invoices may be corrected within six months of invoice issuance.

7. All prices are net of value-added tax applicable on the date of invoice issuance. For advertisement orders emanating from outside Germany that are not subject to value-added tax, invoices are issued without a charge for value-added tax. The Publisher is entitled to invoice for value-added tax retroactively if the tax authorities determine that the advertisement is subject to tax.

§ 5 Positioning of advertising

3. The Publisher expressly reserves the right to make editorially related changes to the advertorial platforms, as well as the right to postpone publication dates when necessitated by such changes.

4. The Publisher positions the advertisement taking the customer’s wishes into account to the greatest possible extent. Unless agreed otherwise, the customer has no claim to a specific positioning or to the exclusion of advertising for goods or services of one of the customer’s competitors. Confirmations of positioning are only conditionally valid and may be changed for technical reasons. The Publisher cannot be made liable in such cases.

§ 6 Contract performance

1. Advertisement orders are to be carried out within one year following conclusion of contract, beginning with the appearance of the first advertisement.

2. The Customer is responsible for the timely delivery of flawless artwork that complies with the technical requirements specified by the Publisher. The Publisher promptly requests replacement for perceptibly unsuitable or damaged artwork. The Publisher guarantees the usual quality within the scope of possibilities afforded by the advertising material. If the Publisher stores the advertising material without being obliged to do so, the storage shall end after a period of maximum 3 months.

3. Should the advertising material not be generally recognizable as such by means of its layout and design, the Publisher is entitled to label advertising material accordingly.

2. If the reproduction quality of the advertising medium is insufficient and constitutes a considerable error, the customer shall have the right to a reduction of payment or a faultless replacement, but only to the degree that the advertising material was affected. In case of impossibility or failure of the correction of performance the customer shall have the option to either payment reduction or to rescind the contract. The entitlement to a supplementary performance is excluded if this should incur unreasonable costs for the Publisher.

3. If there are errors in the advertising medium document that are not obvious, the Customer shall have no right to claims if the resulting publication is insufficient. The same shall apply to errors in repeated placements of advertising material if the Customer fails to draw attention to them in good time before publication of the next placement.

§ 8 Liability
1. The Publisher is liable for damages caused by wilful misconduct or gross negligence, for damages from culpable injury to life, body, or health, and for damages resulting from negligent breach of a duty that is of material importance for achievement of the contract purpose (cardinal duty). Other than with regard to liability for wilful misconduct and culpable injury to life, body, or health, the obligation to pay damages is limited to foreseeable damages that typically arise. In all other respects, claims for damages against the Publisher are precluded, regardless of legal basis. If the Publisher’s liability is precluded or limited under the aforementioned arrangements, this also applies to the personal liability of its employees, representatives, or persons used to perform an obligation (Erfüllungsgehilfen). Liability under the German Product Liability Act (Produkthaftungsgesetz) remains unaffected. Other than claims based on tort or wilful misconduct, claims against the Publisher for damages are prescribed 12 months following the date on which the customer learned or should have learned of the circumstances establishing the claim.

The Publisher is still entitled to payment for an order that is carried out after the disruption has ceased, and within a time period reasonable for the customer. In such cases the agreed period of acceptance is prolonged accordingly, unless the customer can prove that a subsequent publication cannot serve the purpose of the advertisement. The claim for damages is precluded.

§ 9 Storage of customer data
In connection with its business relationships, the Publisher stores customer data by means of electronic data processing in accordance with the statutory provisions of the German Federal Data Protection Act (Bundesdatenschutzgesetz).

§ 10 Place of performance, place of jurisdiction
1. If any one or more of these General Terms and Conditions should be or become ineffective, all other provisions remain in full force and effect. An ineffective provision is instead to be replaced by way of supplementary contract interpretation with an arrangement that most closely approximates the economic purpose intended by the parties with the ineffective provision. The same applies to the closing of any gaps herein.

2. Amendments to the provisions of these General Terms and Conditions and waiver of the requirement of written/text form must be made in writing.

3. The law of the Federal Republic of Germany is applicable, under exclusion of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods and under exclusion of the principles of conflict of laws. The place of performance is Gilching. The place of jurisdiction is Munich for lawsuits against merchants, legal persons under public law, or special funds under public law.
